

Wittgenstein Award Project “Mobility, Microstructures and Personal Agency in Byzantium”

MoByz Book Club Meeting I

The Wittgenstein Project Team invites you to our monthly MoByz Book Club meetings.

The aim is to engage in informal discussion about a small number of focused readings that provide the methodological background for our research on mobility, microstructures and personal agency. Anyone who is interested is welcome to attend—if you are able to do (some of) the readings in advance, even better!

MoByz Book Club meetings will take place once a month, on Mondays, from 17:00 to 18:30, at the Department of Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies (University of Vienna, Postgasse 7, 1010 Vienna, Staircase 1, Third Floor, Hörsaal).

Our first meeting will take place on Monday, 20 May 2019. Under the moderation of Dr. Johannes Preiser-Kapeller we will discuss the following books:

1. Le Goff J., Faut-il vraiment découper l'histoire en tranches? Paris 2014 (224 pp.) (English: Must We Divide History Into Periods? [New York 2017]; German: Geschichte ohne Epochen?: Ein Essay [Darmstadt 2016]).
2. Fowden G., Before and After Muhammad: The First Millennium Refocused (Princeton 2015).
3. Bauer T., Warum es kein islamisches Mittelalter gab: Das Erbe der Antike und der Orient (Munich 2018).

If you are interested in attending the event, please contact Ms. Paraskevi Sykopetritou (Project Coordinator) in order to receive further information and the relevant reading material: paraskevi.sykopetritou@univie.ac.at

Please feel free to share this with anyone who might be interested in the topic.
