Virtual Lecture and Discussion

The Wittgenstein Project Team invites you to a virtual lecture and discussion meeting with Dr. Yannis Stouraitis (University of Edinburgh).

The virtual meeting hosted via Zoom will provide the unique opportunity to discuss with Dr. Stouraitis his current work on “Authorial agencies, ideology and historicity in the story of the 42 Martyrs of Amorion”. After a 20-minute lecture by Yannis Stouraitis, there will be time for discussion, moderated by Prof. Dr. Claudia Rapp.

Yannis Stouraitis has earned a major degree in History (1999) and an M.A. in Medieval Studies (2002) at the University of Ioannina. In 2007, he concluded his Ph.D. in Byzantine History at the University of Vienna, where he has worked as a full-time post-doctoral fellow (2008 – 2015) and an adjunct lecturer (2009 – 2017). His research in the Moving Byzantium project as Team Member (1 April 2016 – 31 March 2017) focused on typologies and microstructures of revolt in the High Medieval Byzantine Empire. He currently holds a lecturer position in Byzantine history at the University of Edinburgh and remains an affiliated member of the Moving Byzantium project.
